The Executive Board of the Worcester County Collectors and Treasurers Association is pleased to offer the membership two topics that we hope you will find timely and informative.

The first half of the morning, a governmental specialist from the Internal Revenue Service will explain the new health insurance premium expense reporting requirements for the 2012 form W2s. The second half of the morning, representatives from three different vendors will discuss the process of implementing and accepting credit cards as a form of payment at the counter.

All dues paying members are invited to attend at no additional charge.
Non-members are invited at a $15 per person pre-paid charge.
