The Executive Board of the Worcester County Collectors and Treasurers Association is pleased to offer the membership a timely and informative presentation on fraud awareness. Both treasurers and collectors must be aware of the increased risk of fraud and learn how to implement procedures to better safeguard our municipalities' cash and other assets.

Thomas J. Scanlon, Jr., CPA and managing partner of Scanlon & Associates will speak about how to deal with issues relating to fraud in the government workplace, examples of fraud and how to detect it.

Melinda Ordway, Senior Program Manager and Financial Analyst with the DOR/Division of Local Services, Municipal Data Management and Technical Assistance Bureau will discuss how sound financial management practices in cities and towns are protections against risks that can threaten municipal operations and undermine resident confidence in government.

All dues paying members are invited to attend at no additional charge.
Non-members are invited at a $15 per person pre-paid charge.
